Fair Sponsors Help Keep the Stevens County Fair Free and Fantastic

By Steve Storck

As you stroll through the Stevens County Fairgrounds, you'll notice signs proudly recognizing the many businesses, individuals, and organizations who sponsor buildings, events, and grounds acts. These signs represent more than just names—they reflect the strong community support that powers the largest free fair in western Minnesota.

The Stevens County Fair offers a wide range of sponsorship opportunities, from as little as $150 to multi-thousand-dollar partnerships. Each and every dollar is deeply appreciated and directly contributes to keeping the fair a free-admission, free-parking event for all who attend. Sponsorships help bring in crowd-favorite attractions, quality entertainment, and essential services—all at no or little cost to fairgoers.

Thanks to sponsor support, the fair continues to grow and improve. This year, a new fence was installed along the highway to enhance safety for both livestock and people. Upgrades have also been made to the lighting and sound systems in the livestock show arena, ensuring that shows and contests are more enjoyable for both participants and audiences.

Several other important improvements include a new livestock sheep wash bay and notable changes in the 4-H exhibit building—updates made possible through the hard work of 4-Hers and their parents. These additions not only enhance the experience for exhibitors but also reflect the fair's commitment to youth and agriculture.

The north stage—known as the SCMC Stage—also received improvements, allowing for an even better experience during musical performances and special events. Additionally, behind-the-scenes projects have been quietly making a big difference. Since last year's fair, visitors will notice an upgrade to the poultry building and the removal of an outdated storage structure, clearing the way for future improvements.

And the work doesn't stop there. The fairboard is constantly reviewing and prioritizing a list of repairs, updates, and replacements to enhance the fairgrounds year after year. Many of these efforts may go unnoticed by the public, but they are essential to the fair's success and safety.

If you or your business would like to become a partner in supporting the Stevens County Fair, visit www.stevenscountyfair.org or talk to any fairboard member. Your support helps ensure that the fair remains a vibrant, fun, and free tradition for the entire region.

Together with our sponsors, we're proud to bring the community six days of entertainment, exhibits, food, and family fun—without ever charging a gate or parking fee. Thank you, sponsors, for being part of the tradition where memories are made. See you August 5-10, 2025 at the Stevens County Fair!

Brodini Brings the Magic Back to Stevens County Fair

Longtime Fair Favorite Returns with Three Days of Interactive Fun

By Steve Storck

The Stevens County Fair is thrilled to welcome back a familiar face and fair favorite — Brodini the Magician — for three magical days in 2025! With a history of performances that spans decades at the Stevens County Fair, Brodini has become a beloved part of the fair's story, enchanting audiences young and old with his high-energy, interactive magic shows.

While we don't have him every year, our friendship with Brodini goes way back. This year, we're excited to bring him back for three shows each day — Starting with the Daycare show on Thursday, and back again for Friday, and Saturday — on the Morris Coop Stage.

Brodini, also known as Graylan Morris, isn't just a regular on the fair circuit — he's an international performer who has taken his act to Brussels, Paris, Amsterdam, and especially Mexico, a country he's visited and performed in for the past 12 years. Yet, it's Stevens County where he's built one of his longest-running fair relationships.

His path to magic wasn't through a mentor or a formal school — it was through books and perseverance. A self-taught magician, Brodini's story resonates with anyone who believes in learning by doing. "If I can do magic, you can too," he tells kids in every show. "I learned from books. That's why I'm here."

And when it comes to entertaining children, Brodini lights up. "The kids are the show!" he says with a smile. Each of his performances is packed with audience participation, encouraging kids to come on stage, be part of the fun, and experience the joy of magic firsthand.

From ropes and balls to mind-boggling sleight of hand, Brodini's performances are a blend of humor, surprise, and skill that test attention spans and dazzle the senses. His unique style brings not just fun, but a level of professionalism and experience that has always made his show a highlight of the fair.

So mark your calendars, grab a front-row spot at the Morris Coop Stage, and don't miss Brodini's free performances during the Stevens County Fair! Prepare to laugh, be amazed, and maybe even join the act — because when Brodini's around, you never know what might disappear next!

The Stevens County Fair offers free gate admission and free parking.

The Strong Man Returns to the Stevens County Fair

Feats of Strength You Have to See to Believe!

By: Steve Storck

It's been years since the Strong Man last wowed crowds at the Stevens County Fair — and now, in 2025, he's back and more powerful than ever! This fan-favorite performer is bringing five full days of jaw-dropping shows to the fairgrounds, and you won't want to miss a single moment.

With three free shows daily, fairgoers will get multiple chances to witness astonishing feats of raw strength that defy logic and amaze audiences of all ages. Watch in awe as the Strong Man bends nails, spikes, and long metal bars like they're made of rubber. See him roll up a frying pan or twist a horseshoe with nothing but his bare hands. And if that's not enough, he'll even lift heavy stones or entire platforms with volunteers from the crowd!

Each performance blends incredible power with crowd interaction, humor, and inspiring messages about perseverance and believing in yourself. It's more than a show — it's an experience.

The Strong Man will be performing three times a day throughout the fair, so be sure to plan your visit accordingly. And remember, all shows are completely free.

The Stevens County Fair is a free gate, free parking event, making it one of the best values in West Central Minnesota. With no admission or parking fees, families can enjoy a full day of fun without breaking the bank.

From thrilling Family Fun Shows Carnival rides and delicious fair food, to live music, vendor booths, and amazing free grounds entertainment like the Strong Man, there's something for everyone at the 2025 Stevens County Fair.

Come for the fun, stay for the strength — and experience one of the most exciting returns to the fair lineup yet!

Bulls, Barrels, and Mutton Busting: Rodeo Action Returns to Stevens County Fair!

Saturday, August 9 – Grandstand – 7:00 PM

By: Steve Storck

Saddle up for a wild night of rodeo action as the MRA Rodeo rides into the Stevens County Fair on Saturday, August 9, starting at 7:00 PM in the grandstand! This full rodeo event promises a high-energy lineup of crowd-favorite competitions, from bucking broncs to fast-paced barrel racing and thrilling bull riding.

And back by popular demand — Mutton Busting returns for our youngest daredevils! This beloved event gives young riders the chance to hop on a sheep and hold on tight for their very own rodeo moment. Spots are very limited, with age and weight restrictions in place to ensure the safety of both the children and the animals. Interested families should watch the Stevens County Fair website at stevenscountyfair.org and follow the fair's Facebook page for upcoming details on how to register.

The rodeo is proudly sponsored by Dacotah Bank, Donnelly Coop, and Veero Ford Chrysler and Ram — community partners helping keep this family-friendly tradition going strong.

As always, the Stevens County Fair offers free gate admission and free parking, making it one of the best values in West Central Minnesota. Grandstand tickets for the rodeo are affordably priced, giving everyone the chance to experience the excitement.

Don't forget to come early and enjoy the great selection of food, from sweet corn to pork chops and everything in between! Stroll the grounds to take in all the free entertainment, browse the many vendor booths, and enjoy the thrills of the Family Fun Shows Carnival Rides.

Make it a full day of fun and cap it off with rodeo action under the lights — we'll see you at the Stevens County Fair!
